Copenhagen, April 7, N. S.

THE Queen of Denmark, who has been lately indisposed, is now so well recovered, that her Majesty ventured, the Beginning of this Week, to accompany the King to Friedensbourg. The White Ribbon was given on the Prince's Birth Day to Count Rantzau, as also to General Schmettau, and M. Sohlenthal Governour to the Prince. The two Battallions of the Regiment of Foot, and the Body of Artillery that are in Quarters in the flat Country, are forthwith expected here to pass in Review before his Majesty. On the 2d Instant the Magistrates met in the Town House lately rebuilt, for the first Time.

Berlin, April 7, N. S. On Wednesday last M. Cnyphausen, lately Minister of State, died at his Commandery, and the Count de Finck, General of the Foot, succeeds him therein. M. de Hanicke, Marshal of the Court of Brunswick, is arrived here, to notify to his Prussian Majesty the Death of the late Duke of Brunswick Lunenbourg.

Dresden, April 7, N. S. The Count de Truchses arrived here the 5th Instant from the Court of Berlin.

Whereas a Letter has been lately sent to John Gray, living in Mortimer, in the County of Hampshire, Gamekeeper to the Right Honourable the Lady Dowager Ann Powlet, threatening him with Death if he did not forbear molesting those who killed her Ladyship's Game in the Mannor of Mortimer; that shortly after several young Trees were cut down and destroyed in a Plantation belonging to her Ladyship, and many Gates broke to Pieces, and other Outrages privately committed: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in any of the said Facts, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned therein, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the said Right Honourable the Lady Dowager Ann Powlet does hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in the said unlawful Acts, or either of them, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall, upon such Conviction, receive from her as a Reward the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

An Powlett.
